

NEW ORDER FILED IN THE WALLINGFORD WILL CASE FRIDAY

First Order Filed in Clerk's Office Is Withdrawn and New One Is Filed By Court Friday Morning.

On Monday following the filing of the inventory and appraisal of the Wallingford estate in County Court, County Judge Purnell filed with the County Clerk his final order in the case which was published by the Public Ledger on that day. The order was duly endorsed filed by the Deputy County Clerk. Later in the day the order was withdrawn and Friday a new order was filed which follows:

"This cause coming on to be heard upon defendant's motion to strike from plaintiff's petition certain allegations as to the amount of bonds, which allegations defendants claim are irrelevant and scandalous, and the court being advised overruled said motion, because defendant failed to show cause why it should not file its inventory and appraisal."

"Whereupon defendant, in answer to the rule, did produce said inventory and appraisal, which was ordered filed."

"Defendant then renewed its motion to strike from the petition, at which time the court suggested taking of proof as to the amount of bonds as set forth in petition, which defendant declined to do, and the court being advised then orders and adjudge that defendant's motion be and the same is again hereby overruled."

Just received from New York a wonderful line of fitted bags and cases—the same grade that the best stores in Cincinnati are showing—but, at a less price. No Christmas gift would be more acceptable than a fitted case or bag. Will be pleased to have you call and take a look at this unusual line. D. HECHINGER & CO. 9Dec6

SMALLPOX AT TOLESBORO.

Dr. V. D. Guitard, County Health Officer, went to Tolesboro Lewis county, Thursday to investigate an alleged epidemic of small pox in that neighborhood. There were fears expressed that the disease might extend to Mazon county. Three cases were found, all under strict quarantine, however, and the local physician, Dr. J. T. Irvine, has complied with all the state regulations in such cases. Dr. Irvine is to be commended for his efforts to check the spread of small pox and has already vaccinated 100 persons. Little danger exists that the disease may spread, but every one going into that neighborhood should be protected by vaccination.

TRANSYLVANIA GLEE CLUB AT ORANGEBURG CHURCH FRIDAY.

The Transylvania Glee Club will give a concert at the Orangeburg Christian church Friday evening, December 9th. Admission 35 cents and 30 cents. After the concert there will be a social in the basement at which oysters, ice cream and cake will be served. 5Dec6t

PRISONER ESCAPES.

Railroad Detective Brown Friday morning arrested a colored man for riding a freight train and delivered him to the local police station. Prison Guard Gill was in charge and the detective left his prisoner to locate one of the police officers. Guard Gill went into the cellar for some purpose and upon his return the prisoner had made an escape.

"WAY DOWN EAST" AT GEM FOR BALANCE OF WEEK.

The big Griffith picture, "Way Down East," opened its three day engagement at the Gem Thursday to good sized audiences. This great picture will be shown at the Gem again today and tomorrow. Every one who has not yet seen the picture should not lose this opportunity to see it.

K. OF P. NOTICE.

MISS AYRES FEATURED IN A GREAT PICTURE

Agnes Ayres Divides Honors With Rudolph Valentino in "The Sheik" To Be Here Next Week.

Agnes Ayres, talented and beautiful, who won stardom by her artistic work in Cecil B. De Mille's Paramount production of "Forbidden Fruit," is featured with the brilliant young screen player, Rudolph Valentino, in George Melford's big Paramount production of "The Sheik," which comes to the Washington Theater the first of next week.

Miss Ayres has the effective role of Diano Mayo, a headstrong but brave and spirited English girl who encounters the Sheik in the desert and learns finally to love him after a somewhat harrowing experience and complete subjugation to his indomitable will. He is a veritable master of men—and women. None can stand against his power which in his empire of sand is almost invincible.

Wild riding and fighting, gripping scenes in desert sandstorms, action piled on action—such are the ingredients of this photoplay by Monte M. Katterjohn, adapted from E. M. Hull's novel. And Miss Ayres has a role that is difficult, filled with hard work and tense acting, to which she does, it is said, more than full justice.

"FARMERETTES" MAKE GOOD.

The Lewis County Leader says: Last season, Misses Anna, May, and Mabel Platt, of Carr's, tried their hand on a couple of acres of corn, and made a shining success.

The soil preparation and planting was done for the girls by their father, who also plowed it for them three times during the summer, all the rest of the work, even to cutting and husking, being done by the three young ladies themselves.

About November 1st the crop was gathered, showing a yield of 120 bushels, with ears of a splendid development and length.

No fertilizer of any kind was used. It isn't necessary on such farms as that of Mr. Jeff Henry, where the corn was raised.

The girls' crop was sold at 50 cents per bushel to Frank Greenhow, of Maysville, who said it was the best of any in an entire carload which he bought.

The young ladies are to be commended for their enterprise, and we wish them continued success and all good luck in every line of their endeavors.

INJURED BY FALL.

The many friends of Wm. Brooks, of near Maysville, will regret to learn of the serious accident which befell him last Friday while repairing a roof on a barn on the Joe Perraut farm. He was blown down from the roof by the high wind, striking a rock, breaking his arm just above the wrist and dislocating the elbow, as well as cutting an ugly gash in his arm, and it is also feared that he is injured internally, as he has not been able to move his body since the accident, thus preventing the physicians from making a thorough examination. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, former residents of this vicinity, have a young son that has also been seriously ill for the past week, suffering from throat trouble, and it is feared that he may have to be operated upon before he improves. —Bracken Chronicle.

EDITOR'S FATHER IS SUICIDE.

Henry Shonert, aged about 80 years, a veteran of the Union Army during the Civil War, committed suicide at his home at Falmouth by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. Mr. Shonert's wife died more than one year ago, since which time he has been ill and a great sufferer and it is likely this caused him to end his life. He had been a resident of Falmouth for many years, where he conducted a blacksmithing business. Mr. Shonert was a quiet, good citizen, and was the father of W. J. Shonert, editor of the Falmouth Outlook.

AUTO OWNERS SLOW IN GETTING NEW LICENSES.

Owners of automobiles are this year very slow in taking out their 1922 licenses. Up to this time County Clerk Owens has issued only twelve licenses to Mazon county car owners. These licenses must be taken out before the first of January.

DE VALERA WILL NOT ACCEPT THE PROPOSED PACT

Leader of Irish Republic Says Test of the Irish People Has Now Come.

Dublin, Dec. 8.—Eamon De Valera tonight issued a statement saying that he could not recommend the peace treaty with Great Britain to the Dail Eireann or to the country, and that in this attitude he is supported by the Ministers of Defense and of Home Affairs.

A public meeting of the Dail Eireann has been fixed for Wednesday.

The third session of the Dail Eireann Cabinet ended tonight, a few minutes after 9 o'clock. It is understood that the opinions of the members of the Cabinet regarding the peace agreement were divided, and that the questions will be left to the decision of the Dail Eireann.

De Valera's message to the Irish people issued at 11:30 o'clock Thursday night, says in part:

"You have seen in the public press the text of the proposed treaty with Great Britain. The terms of this agreement are in violent conflict with the wishes of the majority of this nation as expressed freely at successive elections in the last three years."

"I feel it my duty to inform you immediately that I cannot recommend acceptance of this treaty either to the Dail Eireann or to the country. In this attitude I am supported by the Ministers of Home Affairs and Defense."

"A public session of the Dail Eireann is being summoned for Wednesday at 11 o'clock."

"I ask the people to maintain during the interval the same discipline as heretofore. The members of the Cabinet, though of divided opinions, are prepared to carry on public services as usual."

"The army, as such, is of course not affected by the political situation and continues under the same orders and control."

"The great test of our people has come. Let us face it worthily, without bitterness, and, above all, without recriminations. There is a definite constitutional way of resolving our political differences. Let us not depart from it, and let the conduct of the Cabinet in this matter be an example to the whole nation."

OHIO RIVER ROUTE IS ON GOVERNMENT LIST

Steps Will Be Taken Immediately to Work on Improvement, Says Culkins.

Acting upon the suggestion of W. C. Culkins, Executive Secretary of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, and W. T. Calderine, President of the Ohio Good Roads Federation, Leon C. Herick, Ohio State Highway Commissioner, has designated the route of the Atlantic-Pacific highway from the state line west of Cincinnati to Ironton, as a preferential interstate highway for federal aid.

Following the selection of the Ohio River route for the highway, Mr. Culkins and Mr. Calderine immediately appeared before Mr. Herick with a petition that the road be designated for federal aid. More than $2,000,000 has been appropriated by the government for improvement of Ohio roads designated by the State Highway Department, the only proviso being that this sum must be duplicated by the state.

According to Mr. Culkins, who returned to Cincinnati from Columbus Thursday, Mr. Herick has designated the route of the new highway for improvement and assured the Cincinnati representatives that steps will be taken to immediately start work on the improvement.

MUSICAL SHOW
THURSDAY PLEASSED

Musical Comedy "Irene" at Washington Thursday Evening Pleased Fair Sized Audience.

That much talked of musical comedy "Irene" in its first appearance in this city Thursday evening pleased only a medium crowd in attendance. Though the usual dash and go generally displayed by a chorus in musical performances was lacking in "Irene," the simplicity of it all, together with an interesting love story coupled with catchy music more than made up for this. Never has so many pretty airs been assembled as one will find in "Irene." Though such tunes as "Irene," and "Alice Blue Gown" have long lost their charm by over usage, "Castle of Dreams," "To Love You," and "Sky Rocket" as well as others are just now being appreciated.

Very noticeable were the leading parts as compared with the average "Irene" Dunne as Irene O'Dare was excellent, also Busley Barkley as Mame Lucy, Rollin Grimes as Donald Marshall and Al Hinton as Robert Harrison and Robert Marshall deserve mention. Misses Howard and Pigeon proved dancers of some ability. All in all had the chorus been up to par and more stress put on vocal talent the company would have been first class.

Association Will Have at Least 52,000 Members When Doors Close Saturday, Says Passonneau.

Lexington, Dec. 9.—Tobacco growers who had not previously signed the contract pledging their crops to the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association have been taking advantage of the opportunity, extended on recommendation of the districting and elections committee, to join the association between November 26th and next Saturday, December 10, some of them coming to the offices of the association at 620 South Broadway to sign contracts.

Several hundred additional contracts came in the mails yesterday and Organization Manager Joseph Passonneau said he believed the 52,000 mark would be passed by the association before Saturday. Many growers expressed appreciation of the opportunity to become members after the association had signed the 75 per cent, and more required to make it a success.

Preparations are being rushed at the headquarters to have everything in readiness for the directors to take charge of the association as a going concern following the election of delegates next Monday and the selection of the directors, which is expected to follow immediately afterward, or within the next day or two.

20 ARMED MEN ROB DIS.
TILLERY OF $80,000 STOCK.

Tyrone, Ky., Dec. 8.—Whisky valued at more than $80,000 was removed from the T. B. Ripy Distillery, near here tonight by a band of twenty armed men, who held up the Superintendent and three guards.

Ten barrels and 194 cases of bottled-in-bond whisky were removed by the bandits, who used three touring cars and two trucks to haul the liquor away. Police of all Central Kentucky towns have been notified to be on the lookout for the party.

BROOKSVILLE FINDS ITSELF IN PECULIAR POSITION AFTER VOTE

Classification of Brooksville Changed By Last Legislature But Is Not Discovered Until After Election Under the Old Class.

Our neighbor town of Brooksville, Capital of Bracken County, has just discovered that it is a fifth class city instead of a sixth class as it has been for many, many years. The trouble is that it was not discovered that the classification of Brooksville was changed by the 1920 Legislature until last week and in the November election the officers required under a sixth class city charter were elected instead of those required under a fifth class city and the people of Brooksville, especially the successful candidates in the recent election are in a quandary.

Under the sixth class city charter the residents and voters of the town elect a board of trustees and a Marshal, the trustees electing their own chairman. This was done in November but they now discover that instead of a Board of Trustees they should have a Mayor, six councilmen and the councilmen should elect a Marshal, Clerk, Treasurer and other officers.

Brooksville people are wondering why the Legislature should take the liberty of changing their town's class when no one requested it.

Brooksville is now in about the same sort of turmoil over the classification of their town as Maysville was two months ago, the only difference being that Maysville discovered its situation in time to hold the proper sort of an election and Brooksville did not.

OUR POLICY:

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

EDUCATION WEEK.

As there are those who wish that every day might be Christmas, there are those who have the interest of the country most at heart, who could wish that every week were "education week."

The President, by proclamation, has set apart the period from the fourth to the tenth of December as a time in which the American people are to give their thoughts in a special manner to the grave problems which we all know exist in connection with our educational system.

The President has stated the case clearly when he reminds us that while "public education is the basis of citizenship and of primary importance to the nation," there are five million children of school age who are not being trained in the schools, and are missing even that rudimentary preparation for citizenship in a republic which reading and writing give.

He reminds us, also, that the draft revealed the fact that there are "vast elements of the population that are illiterate, physically unfit, and unfamiliar with American ideals and traditions."

The Commissioner of Education, Doctor Tigert, declares that the greatest need in education in the United States "is a square deal for the country child"; the city child having spent upon his training $45.59 a year, while the child in the country has spent upon him only $23.91. In the city the schools are open on the average, 182 days each year as compared with a term of 142 days in the country.

In addition to this, there are 300,000 schools that are one-room buildings; scores of thousands which are miserably ventilated and heated; other scores of thousands where only from three to ten pupils are in attendance; and still others where salaries are so wholly inadequate that to secure a well-equipped, enthusiastic teacher is an utter impossibility.

A commission of women, through women's organizations throughout New York state, recently completed a survey of the schools and found that disgraceful conditions existed, and that many parts of the Empire State were as dark as some parts of the South have been pictured.

One thing which would serve to a considerable degree to lift the load of criticism which Congress now bears uneasily, would be an enlightened policy toward federal aid for national education, and the creation of a separate department of education with a cabinet officer at its head.

A strong demand for this great reform is being heard in Washington, and the sooner it is satisfied the better.

The President, however, properly calls attention to immediate local responsibility, and suggests that the pulpit, the press, schools, and public gatherings be all enlisted in behalf of this special effort which centers in Education Week.—Lexington Leader.

TAX RETURNS SHOULD REMAIN INVIOLEATE.

"It is well that the conferees on the tax revision bill agreed to strike out the provision giving Congress authority to call upon the Treasury Department for income tax returns of corporations and individuals," says the Republican Publicity Association, through its president, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "We have already too much governmental interference with private affairs. The Treasury Department, with the cooperation of the Department of Justice, has ample authority to see that every man and every corporation makes an honest return of his taxable income. The responsibility for the faithful performance of that duty should be left with the department where it is lodged. It is quite possible that the Treasury Department will not in all cases secure complete returns and collect all the taxes legally due, but there is no likelihood that constant inquiries from Congress and demands for inspection of the records would result in any material increase in collections or in expedition of the work. There is delay and confusion enough already.

"But, save from that phase of the matter, the income tax returns should remain inviolate except for the single question of their accuracy. If Congress or a Congressional Committee could and did call for income returns, and made them subject to committee inspection, there would be no further possibility of an individual or corporation keeping his business affairs secret. Business competition is always keen. Rivals will frequently resort to extreme measures to ascertain the financial status of their competitors. Information of this kind, if available in a critical situation, would enable an unscrupulous concern to ruin its unfortunate rival, which, if left free to pursue its business in the usual way, would attain success. There are a lot of successful men in the United States who have seen the day when it would have been disastrous for them if there had been publicity of their financial difficulties. Given a fair opportunity, they pulled through the emergency and continued to be useful factors in the industrial life of their communities.

"What American industry needs today is a little less interference from the Government—particularly from bureaucrats who may never have conducted any considerable business of their own but who take delight in trying to tell private citizens how to run their affairs."

HONEY PHILOSOPHY FOR 1921.

The cynic has said that "All men are cowards." As we hear men lie, and watch their conduct to others, and listen to their barren explanations for the commission of unseemly acts, we feel that the cynic is correct to a T. But just then we begin to remember what men will do—all grades of men and of all nationalities and all conditions—when we see them face death for a holy cause or for a baneful, and throw their lives away with the most sublime heroism, why, we forget the cynic's blurb. The truth is, wondrous courage and base cowardice are strangely mixed into every man's make-up.

Pennsylvania has 24 wild life sanctuaries. What a lot of wild lives there must be in the Keystone state!

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, Dec. 8.—(Special Correspondence)—The monthly survey of agricultural and industrial conditions made by the Department of Commerce, may be summarized as follows:

Storms have reduced the rice crop in Japan nearly 15 per cent, the estimated yield being about 282,000,000 bushels, or 42,000,000 bushels less than the annual consumption. This means that Japan will have to import. There is a growing tendency to use wheat and in September we exported 1,867,000 bushels to that country, partly due to the efforts of the Australian wheat pool to maintain prices. The fall cotton crop will be small, which means an increased price in raw silk. It has averaged about $5.60 a pound, import price, thus far this year. Savings deposits continue to increase. Building and construction are back to normal and this has resulted in heavy importations of lumber from America. There has been a reduction of warehouse stocks, and the budget has been cut, principally the naval appropriations.

The financial situation in China has been bad an dis growing worse. Great speculation in silver. In ten months 1,482,000 gross of hair nets were exported from Chefoo to the United States. Swatow shows considerable increase in the embroidery industry. Large imports are predicted because of exhausted stocks, the principal revivals of merchandise are of Japanese and American cotton goods, Belgian and English window glass, and German aniline dyes.

Financial conditions in Australia continue to improve. The wool market is firm, but there is stagnation in the meat industries. Import buying is being resumed. Labor unrest and strikes have been waning and living costs decrease. The wheat board is to terminate its operations December 31.

The slump in the German mark, caused by reparations payments and the Upper Silesian decision of the league of nations has been followed by enormous purchases of German goods for foreign consumption. Living costs are soaring and there is great inflation. The budget for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1922, will show a deficit of 110 billion paper marks, while 1923 will show a deficit of 127 billion. These include the indemnity obligations, without which the deficits would be 10 and 27 billions for the two years respectively. New capital absorption has average 1,700,000,000 paper marks so far this year. Unemployment is rapidly dwindling. The crop outlook, especially potatoes, is discouraging. The merchant fleet is building up rapidly.

Conditions in Great Britain continue to improve and arrangements have been made to commence annual payments of £50,000,000 interest on the war debt to the United States. There is to be a large reduction in military and naval expenditure. Foreign exports are to be stimulated by a revision of the British exports credit scheme. Crops are the worst for years, the root crop being the least successful of all.

France entered the fourth quarter of 1921 with exports and imports balanced. There is an increase in production. The business turnover tax is to be doubled. Strikes have largely been settled. Crops show well.

Government revenues in Italy are encouraging. An increased flow of foreign capital into the country is noted. Unemployment is decreasing.

cotton mills working full time. Imports from Germany and the United States show greatest gains. Crops show a good yield.

BOY BORROWS FIFTY AND GETS DAD OUT OF JAIL.

Louisville.—Fifteen-year-old Leonard French obtained the release of his father, Angero S. French, from the Clark county jail, Jeffersonville. The father was serving out a fine of $230, assessed when he was found with nineteen beer bottles filled with moonshine in his carpenter shop. He had only $100. The boy managed to borrow $50 from an uncle, Armol French, of Louisville, and Acting Judge Henry F. Dilger, of the Jeffersonville police court consented to reduce the fine to $150.

WATER BOTTLE PROVES TO BE FOUNTAIN OF LIQUOR.

Hazard.—A colored man stopped by Deputy Sheriff John Smith explained that a large lump under his shirt was a hot water bottle worn to relieve the pain of a rupture. When made to produce it, the bottle was found to contain whisky, and a small tube connection was it easy to supply whisky by slight pressure on the bag. Two half pint bottles of liquor were carried as a reserve supply. The man attempted to get away but was captured and placed in jail.

The large wooden battleship ever made, the Impregnable, constructed at Pembroke, England, in 1858, is being broken up.

BILL TO PROVIDE WHISKY TRIALS BY LOWER COURTS.

Frankfort.—One of the chief causes for the inability of county and city officials to enforce the prohibition laws in Kentucky is the lack of power to try them in the county, police and magistrates courts of the state, in the opinion of state officials here. As a result Attorney General Charles I. Dawson is preparing to draw a bill for presentation to the next session of the state legislature empowering courts lower than the circuit courts to try liquor law violators.

ECONOMY MEASURES AT QUARTERMASTER'S DEPOT.

Louisville.—Curtalement of the annual vacation, elimination of the $20 monthly bonus and other economies are being felt by employees of the United States Army quartermaster's depot at Jeffersonville, Ind., across the river from this city. The first of December saw several hundred employees of the various departments released.

WIDOW RECOVERS $2,000 FOR KILLING OF BRADLEY.

Mayfield.—The $30,000 damage suit of Mrs. Sam Bradley against Bob Bradley was compromised at $2,000 and costs of action. The Bradleys were brothers, and the widow sued as the result of the alleged killing of Samuel by Robert Bradley. A charge of murder against the latter was filed away last week after three juries had disagreed.

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York. — America's newest and largest church has begun services here. Its membership extends all over the country and literally thousands can be present at every one of its services. Although duly organized with a pastor and assistant pastor it is non-sectarian and of decidedly liberal view. It is known as the "First Radio Church of America" and has its foundation in the idea of Walter J. Garvey who is the owner of what is perhaps the most powerful and finest radio set operated by any amateur in the country. Mr. Garvey conceived the idea of using this set to the advantage of what he calls "applied radio telephony." From his home a message, sermon, song or prayer may be sent out which can be picked up and transmitted by more than 200,000 radio operators in the nation. It is his idea that in grouping people who have something of value to tell the world, in his laboratory, he can summon the operators throughout the country who will in turn inform an awaiting public of what is being said in this place. The services for Sunday have already started and more people were probably listening in on church services last Sunday than would fill the largest church edifice ever constructed.

According to Mr. Garvey it is not necessary to have an antenna on the roof of a house receiving the service. The substitution of an ordinary tin dishpan on the fire escape or the use of the glass bed will permit the transmission.

It is a wonder more people are not blind! The opticians have invented a machine known as the retinoscope, to be used in correcting optical ills, which refracts the strain in fib telling. You may be able to tell a lie and keep a straight face but you can't do it and maintain normal vision. The time would not seem for off when this apparatus is installed in every court room and the jury will no longer be dependent upon the honor of the witness. With the tiny beams of the instrument playing upon the eyes an erroneous statement of fact will cause a tell tale shadow of refraction to flit across the eye which is registered in the machine and qualifies you for a member of the Ananias Club, if you have not been too careful of the facts. The vision is weakened and impaired by this disarrangement of the mental faculties in the frequent telling of untruth, and again I say it is a wonder more people are not carrying tin cups.

OH! MY BACK!

The Expression of Many a Kidney Sufferer in Mayville.

A stubborn backache is cause to suspect kidney trouble. When the kidneys are inflamed and swollen, stooping brings a sharp twinge in the small of the back, that almost takes the breath away. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve sluggish kidneys—relieve aching backs. Ask your neighbors. Here's Mayville proof:

Mrs. H. Jones, 702 East Second street, says: "I well know the value of Doan's Kidney Pills, having used them for disordered kidneys and backache and they cured me of the complaint. My back had been giving me trouble for sometime. There was a dull, nagging pain across the center of my back just over my kidneys. Many a day I had to let my housework go undone as I was feeling so miserable. I had pains in the back of my head and my kidneys weren't acting regularly. As Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my family successfully I went to Wood & Son's Drug Store and got three boxes. After using them I was all right. I am glad to recommend Doan's."

Price 60 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Jones had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Outsiders are already beginning to flock to New York for the Christmas shopping season. The stores are taking on an aspect of tinsel and colors. We hear much talk about the numerous eliminations of useless toys and other things which, before and during the war, we deemed so essential to our welfare and enjoyment—but, really one can not see a single speck of difference in the store displays. They seem to have as many, if not more, of the old-time gee-gaws, and an unlimited number of innovations. New York children should have lots of fun selecting their holiday gifts. It makes one think of those who will not be so fortunate—for instance, the millions of Russian youngsters who are now being fed by the American Relief Administration, headed by Herbert Hoover. It makes one conclude that a very human Christmas gift would be one of the Food Remittances which are being sent to Russia to help the older folks in the stricken country, and which can be obtained by applying to the American Relief Administration, 42 Broadway.

—NY—
New York is to welcome Leonore Ulrich in her return to these parts in the title role of "Kiki," a character study by Andre Picard under the auspices of Mr. Belasco. The play has had wide study and production on the other side and is particularly well suited to Miss Ulrich's type of work. The cast and production would seem to follow the Belasco standard.

Dr. Edward N. Levy, formerly veterinary to the animals in the Central Park Zoo, is now in the fish business. Not dried herring, but the shimmering little finsters which pursue an endless journey in small glass bowls. He has made a psychological study of the effect of gold fish on the human, and sees something of importance in the unusual tendency of a normal person to concentrate interest in the perfectly useless antics of fish within a globe. It seems that the tendency is more pronounced in sick persons and convalescents, as well as the aged and very young, and he therefore recommends that hospitals equip themselves with a larger stock of gold fish. "Have you an aquarium in your home" is the newest slogan hereabouts.

—NY—
The subway always offers interest to me. I saw a stout gentleman going over his completed sartorial makeup the other day. Nor was he content with this. He vegame tonsorial as well. Perhaps it was his fine red mustache which he carefully and gravely combed, or the diamond horseshoe which he arranged to advantage in his cravat. Anyway, he was all set for exhibition when we arrived at the last stop. Not to be outdone, the conductor proved himself a quick change artist by unscrewing his beautiful brass buttons at the same time he called out, "Last stop!" and in the twinkling of an eye was ready for the street in a neat, but not gaudy, blue serge suit.

GROOM AND BEST MAN BOTH WORE REVOLVERS.

Louisville—Jeffersonville, long the scene of unusual weddings, had another. The bridegroom and the best man each had a revolver strapped to his side. There was no bloodshed. Miss Elfreda Plump, 25 years old, of Evansville, was the bride; William F. Patton, 25, special officer of Evansville, the bridegroom, and Patrolman Fred Lawrence, of Evansville, the best man. The accoutrements of war, accounted for by the fact that just before the marriage the bridegroom and the best man had arrived at the Indiana Reformatory with William Ferringier, of Evansville, who has the reputation of a "bad man."

Sixteen rules, comprising a code of morals, have been adopted by the girl students of Point Pleasant High School, W. Va., with the view of improving the moral standard of the school.

PARENT-TEACHERS' ASSOCIATIONS ASKED TO HELP KIDDIES

State President Makes Appeal for Cottage Village for the Orphan Children of the State.

Louisville, Ky. — Parent-Teachers' organizations in every school district in Kentucky are called on by the state president, Mrs. George C. Weldon, to help the Kentucky Children's Home Society in its effort to build a cottage village at Lyndon, Ky., for the care of the homeless children of Kentucky.

Mrs. Weldon in her letter points out that the purpose of the two organizations are so parallel that even the names should be synonymous. The Kentucky Children's Home Society, at present, is caring for more than 150 children in buildings on Baxter avenue designed to shelter only 150 children, and yet throughout the state there are thousands of little ones homeless, friendless and knocking at the door of the institution for admission that crowded conditions forbid.

The society was founded twenty-five years ago by Judge Reginald Thompson who died soon afterward. Judge Robert W. Bingham, the first vice president and one of its charter members, then was elected president, which post he still holds.

During its existence the society has taken in nearly 4,000 children, and almost all of them have been placed in good homes. In hardly a community in the state is there not some prosperous business man or happy wife who was a ward of the society, and in the majority of cases these useful citizens of today were found in squalor and amid surroundings that breed crime and poverty.

Only by order of the various County Judges are children admitted, and now that the doors of the institution are temporarily closed, these children must be placed in the squalid poor houses to await the construction of the cottage village.

George L. Sehon, Superintendent of the society, in asking that the mothers and school children help raise this building fund, hopes by this means to have the cottage village, erected as a memorial for the school children, dedicated to the homeless swails of the state.

Mrs. Weldon's letter follows: "My Dear President: — The Kentucky Children's Home Society is an organization whose sole aim is the care of the dependent and unfortunate children all over the state—not only of your community but of mine and of ever other where such care is needed. The aim of the Parent-Teacher Associations of Kentucky is so similar that the names should be synonymous. The Kentucky Children's Home Society is moving its children to a beautiful estate in the country where they will all be given an opportunity for health—in other words, where God's sunshine may be theirs and where they will be housed and cared for as all little ones have a right to be.

There will be a children's village when completed—but the work is now halted, when really only well begun, because of lack of funds. It will take $200,000 to complete the work, so that the children may be given the care they deserve and should and will have there.

The children are kept there until a good Christian home is found for them where they will be cared for, loved and in most cases finally adopted. While in these new homes, they will be watched over by the home society that none may be left in unfit surroundings.

An appeal goes to every president of a local Parent-Teacher Association in Kentucky to do its share in this wonderful movement for the children. It is primarily our work—the welfare of the children—God bless 'em!

Plan with your teachers the best way in which the quota for your school and community may be raised, through your Parent-Teacher Association and the $300,000 for the children will be raised, but in the words of Kipling it will take "the everlasting teamwork of every blomp' soul!" Yours for the children and the team work that wins.

MRS. GEORGE C. WELDON,
President P. T. A.

JUSTICE, NOT VIOLENCE, IS KOREANS' CRY

Regret False Reports That Premier of Japan Was Assassinated by Fellow Countrymen.

Discussing the probable effect of the assassination of Premier Hara of Japan on the Conference on Limitation of Armament, E. K. Whang, a prominent Korean attending the conference as an observer, interviewed in Washington, declared that the reports that a Korean was guilty of the deed had been proved untrue.

"We were shocked by the deplorable crime," he said, "and were in a position to do so without being misunderstood, would have been among the first to extend condolence and sympathy."

"We were chagrined and pained at the first rumors to the effect that the crime had been committed by a Korean and we are relieved beyond measure to now know definitely that the first rumors are untrue in this respect."

"Such methods are against our principles and violence of all kinds is frowned upon by our leaders and positive instructions have been issued against it. In view of the publicity given to first rumors, we feel that as much publicity as possible should be given to the correction of the false impressions created by the first cables, in justice to our people."

Mr. Whang was connected with the Korean Mission to the Paris Peace Conference and until quite recently was stationed in Paris and London. During the course of the interview he exhibited a clipping from the "London Star" of May 9th, 1921, under the headline, "Koreans and Crown Prince — Discredited Rumors of Projected Murder," in which Mr. Whang was quoted as saying: "We are neither criminals or mad men. Our appeal from the first has been to justice and not to violence. The thought of attacking or injuring the Crown Prince in any way has not entered our minds."

"I am sure," he added, "that statement sums up our attitude and our principles in this great cause that we have undertaken, in which we are trying to restore freedom to twenty million people."

"As to what effect the assassination of the Premier may have on the Conference, I cannot be expected to even venture an opinion of any value. It is possible that it may delay the preliminary negotiations, but let us hope that it will have no permanent effect upon the final results."

FLOWER TURNS NIGHT INTO DAY.

One of the strangest flowers, and one that is not often seen, because it only blossoms after night has fallen, and then withers before dawn comes, is the cereus. Except at the time it blooms, this plant, which is one of the few that turn night into day, is not at all attractive in appearance. What you see is nothing more than a leafless, distorted tangle of discolored and repellent vegetable fibres.

But when this unpromising mass of roots does break into blossom, it throws out flowers as beautiful as they are deliciously scented. The bud begins to unfold a little after dusk, and in an hour or two it has grown to a large flower several feet in circumference, which at midnight is brown and orange and white, and fills the air with a heavy tropical scent like a compound of fresh frangipani, roses, and tiger lilies. An hour or so before dawn the flowers begin to fade, and before breakfast the plant is again an apparently withered heap.

AGED COUPLE ARRESTED; STILL FOUND IN HOME.

Louisville — Mrs. Ida Stelker, 73; her husband, Joe Stelker, 70, and three other men were arrested by police. Captain Younger received information that someone was making moonshine on the Point. With a squad of men he went to the Stelker residence and found there a twenty-gallon still in full operation, police charge. Stelker and his wife told police that they didn't know "what that was." The still was a new one. Captain Younger said. Two barrels of mash found in the house were destroyed and a half pint bottle of moonshine seized for evidence.

WOMEN WILL MAINTAIN LOBBY AT FRANKFORT.

Frankfort. — The Kentucky State Federation of Women's Clubs and the Kentucky League of Women Voters will co-operate to secure the passage of certain progressive bills which will be offered at the next General Assembly. The organizations will be represented here during practically the entire sessions by Mrs. Charles Sample, of Louisville, chairman of the legislative committee of the State Federation and Mrs. Benjamin Bayless. The two chairmen appointed a special committee to be known as the "Look-out Committee," of local women which will cooperate with the two organizations in securing the passage of bills to be "mothered" by the League and the Federation.

COVINGTON WAREHOUSE OPENS.

The Kenton Loose Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company opened its plant, Second and Scott streets, Thursday to receive tobacco. Several large truck loads of tobacco were brought in during the day.

It was announced that sales would be held on Monday. Because of growers pooling their tobacco for higher prices the management does not expect to handle the volume of tobacco that was offered last year. It was reported Thursday night that 90,000 pounds of tobacco had been received at the warehouse.

SELF-RELIANCE GOES BANKRUPT

Thin Blood Saps Energy, Gude's Pepto-Mangan Rebuilds the Blood.

Wrestling with a weakened condition of the blood is a desperate struggle. Thin, watery blood causes a played-out feeling not unlike utter exhaustion. A man with weak blood has not full use of his powers. He lacks decision, and vacillates until he loses self-confidence.

Some men, and women too, go faltering along for months scarcely realizing that they need Gude's Pepto-Mangan, the blood builder. But when they have taken it for a while, what a difference there is in the feelings! The old-time vigor and the red-blooded hue of good health return. The new rich blood gets to work, building, fortifying, lifting the spirit up to its normal standard. Physicians have prescribed Gude's Pepto-Mangan for years as a blood-builder. Druggists sell it in liquid and tablet form. Look for the name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" on the package—Advertisement.

A POET'S PEN SHOULD DESCRIBE OUR PIE

Its flaky crustfulness just browned enough barely keeps in bounds the fruity treat that's stored inside. Delicate and yet as satisfying as a meaty sandwich.
